Success Through Learning

Parents and friends of Caragabal Public School,

Music a Viva

It was another excellent performance put on by Musica Viva last week. The students enjoyed the foot tapping Irish music played by the group "Fada". The students recognised the tunes we had heard in class and were a responsive audience. Hamish eagerly participated in learning how to play an Irish Bodhran.

Hamish and Gage also volunteered to perform the Irish Skipping Dance which we all joined in for.

School facilities standards review

You can now have your say on the classrooms of the future by participating in an online survey as part of a comprehensive review of the School Facilities Standards. The standards, developed during the 1970s, outline how school facilities are designed and built. The review will consider changes in the way education is delivered, technological advances and increased community expectations.

Your ideas will be used to assist in creating design standards that will inform the development or refurbishment of schools that are appropriate for the future. The survey takes approximately 20 minutes to complete and is open until November 28.

WEDDIN SHIRE COUNCIL NEWS 16/11/11

Remembrance Day was again celebrated at Grenfell's picturesque Memorial Park, with a good roll up of ex-service men and women, local citizens and school children. The buglers from the Town Band provided the Last Post and Reveille to round off an important ceremony. Well done to all concerned.

Apparently a lot of people were making arrangements to be married at 11.00 am on 11.11.11, believing the sequence of elevens to be a lucky omen.

It may well be, but it could also indicate the marriage might only last 11 years. Some people might regard that as lucky too. Others might say you don't get that for murder. I wouldn't say anything like that, though.

Having been away for a few weeks, it didn't surprise me to come back and find the Council still being criticised over the doctor issue.

There have been a number of doctors referred to Council by community members over the last year or so, as possible GPs for Grenfell. These have all been followed up but in the end none was prepared or able to accept the position.

I note that another doctor has recently expressed interest. However when I spoke to him last week, he stated he did not want to be the third doctor, nor did he want to fill in for a short term. Apparently he had not been made aware that there was still one doctor practicing in the town and another one coming, and he lost interest once he understood the full situation.

This doctor had prepared an interesting proposal for the Grenfell surgery, involving rostering three doctors so that there were always two on duty. Issues like costs for accommodation and travel were not discussed so Council's contribution to the proposal remains unknown.

The doctor was advised that he would be considered for any future vacancies, and his contact details have been passed on to the Area Health Service.

In the meantime the Area Health Service continues to liaise with our new doctor, Dr Patrick. I am advised he is assembling all the documentation required for his visa and medical examinations, a process which is notoriously slow in African countries. There is still no date of arrival but the doctor is keen to get here and get going, and no time is being wasted. However it is proving a long drawn out process.

The Grenfell Cricket Club has requested Council to consider replacing the wicket in the main Lawson Oval so that the ground can again be utilised for cricket in summer. The proposal is for a synthetic turf which can be covered by a commercial wicket cover for football.

Council resolved to circulate the proposal to the junior and senior football clubs for comment before making a decision on the matter.

With the approach of summer the Rural Fire Service is again promoting fire safety and has launched a campaign named "Prepare, Act, Survive" to increase public awareness.

Information to help landowners prepare for fires is available on the Rural Fire Service website at www.rfs.nsw.gov.au/councils. The Rural Fire Service invites all landowners to make use of the site and take the necessary precautions.

Bogolong Dam is back in the news again, with Central Tablelands Water seeking to dispose of it. Expressions of interest have already been invited and a community body has shown immediate interest.

In recent years this dam has been a cause of great concern for Central Tablelands Water, with constant pressure from government departments to carry out studies and remedial works. It appears that one of these studies has resulted in the Dams Safety Committee being satisfied the dam poses no threat to residents downstream, and it has accordingly been removed from their list of prescribed dams.

Council in the past has been loath to take over Bogolong Dam because of the resulting high financial liability attached to it. In view of the de-listing by the Dams Safety Committee, Council will consider at its meeting next week, whether to have another look at the situation, and whether it can combine with the local group for a good outcome for the community.

The November Council Meeting would normally be held this Thursday but the date conflicts with an important conference which will be attended by the Mayor and General Manager.

In view of this, Council has postponed the meeting until 5.00 pm on Monday 21 November. It will be preceded at 4.30 pm by a presentation by Council's auditor on the annual statements. Members of the public are welcome to attend the presentation and the following meeting.

Dates to Note

21 November	- Ordinary Council Meeting, 5.00 pm (note the change)
25 November	- Recycling Collection (eastern run)
28 November	- Recycling Collection (western run)
