Success Through Learning

PRINCIPAL'S REPORT...

Olivia Berry

I would like to welcome Olivia Berry to the school this week. Olivia is in Year 10 at The Henry Lawson High School and is completing her work experience in both classrooms. We hope she enjoys her week with us and it encourages her to pursue a teaching career.

Rotary of Grenfell

Thank you to Ron and Jan McClelland from Grenfell Rotary, who came out to the school last Monday to present a certificate of appreciation for our community's resilience during the drought. We thank Rotary for all of their support.

Intensive Swimming Program

Week one of swimming is behind us and all of the students are making excellent progress. Students will be swimming again this week and will be notified by their swimming teacher if they need to bring long sleeve clothes for a safety lesson. Please ensure their school and swimming clothes are labelled clearly with their name and they bring their own drink bottle.

Presentation Evening & Year 6 Farewell

Our Presentation evening is on Tuesday 15th December starting at 6pm, at the Caragabal Community Hall. Each family will be invited to bring a maximum of 6 family members, not including students at the school. An invite will be sent to each family, please RSVP by Wednesday 9th December indicating numbers so seating can be allocated. Also due to restrictions, families are asked to bring their own picnic dinner.

Our Year 6 Farewell is being held at the school on Wednesday 16th December starting at 2:15pm. Only parents of the Year 6 students will be able to attend.

The last day of school for the year is Wednesday the 16th of December.

Students return to school on Friday the 29th of January.
