Term 3 Week 3

FROM MR JONES

On Thursday, we undertook a Professional Learning session, led by Mr Pudya in his capacity as APC&I. The training centered around number talks and the cultivation of number fact fluency. We eagerly anticipate honing our abilities through our upcoming weekly meetings.

School photos are scheduled for the upcoming Tuesday, August 8th. Please find an attached information flyer containing updated details and a form with information about sibling photos. Sibling photos can be pre-ordered or brought in on the day. On the day of the photos, students are required to wear their green school shirt and green jumper. If you require either of these clothing items on the day, kindly get in touch with the school for assistance.

Last Wednesday brought a delightful surprise as local police officers, Sergeant Renae and Constable Cameron, paid us an unexpected visit. They took the time to introduce themselves to everyone and openly address any inquiries. The students posed some excellent questions, such as their favorite gadgets, the significance of the stripes on their shirts, and the duration of police training.

Sergeant Renae and Constable Cameron adeptly responded to all the students' insightful queries, emphasizing the significance of reaching out to the police in times of trouble or need. Their presence and guidance left a positive impact, reminding us all of the valuable role our local police play in our community.

Thank you to everyone who let us know last week about student absences or early pick ups. We appreciate you supporting our school policies and procedures. As a school community we are working to reach our goal; "All students attending school 90% of the time". 90% of the time equates to students attending school 90 days out of every 100.

School Captain's Report

Today Eddie, Sam, Jessie and Nic went to Forbes for soccer because they made the team in the trials with Miss Bradley. Now the four Caragabal students are off with Miss Bradley and are going to play in a soccer knockout day with the rest of the Forbes Small Schools Team.

Our art entries for the Grenfell Show are almost finished.

We would like to acknowledge the traditional custodians of this land and pay respect to Edlers past, present and emerging. It is on their land that Caragabal public school is built, we acknowledge that under the concrete and asphalt this land is and always will be Wiradjuri land.

We've been enjoying the pleasant weather by engaging in various outdoor physical activities during most afternoons.

We have always got a delicious selection of healthy food on offer at before and after school care. please Let Abby know if there are any special items you would like to see added to the menu!

Reminder

Now that the sun has a bit more bite to it, please remember to pack a hat for Theircare.

Hello, everyone! Welcome back to TheirCare Term 3! Last week, it brought immense joy to witness all your cheerful faces. Let's make this term a fantastic and memorable one together!

The previous week, we had a delightful time crafting aliens utilising our handprints and footprints. The kids couldn't help but giggle and squirm playfully as they attempted to paint each other's feet for the footprints.

This week, our primary focus has been on engaging in STEM activities. On Tuesday, we had an exciting cup stacking session where participants experimented with various combinations and raced against each other to determine the fastest assembly and disassembly times.

Additionally, we had a blast making GIANT bubbles! For this, we utilised both store-bought wands and some we crafted using pipe cleaners. The experience was both educational and enjoyable for everyone involved.
